CHRISTIAN BOREDOM

Jesus said that He came to seek and to save the lost. If we have no sense of being lost, then we have no excitement that Jesus is the way out of our pathless wilderness. He also said that He did not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. If we do not see ourselves as sinners, we have no interest in the mission of Jesus and do not see ourselves as part of it. His promises of total forgiveness are only of interest to those who know that they have sinned and are in need of His forgiveness. Promises of forgiveness are of no interest to the person who has no consciousness of sin. Prayer, worship, reading the Bible and serving Creator God is boring and uninteresting to those who lack the ability to see and understand the great price that God paid for them to be saved.

That God has written His law on our hearts is of no interest to people who are not familiar with their own helplessness to love God and to walk in love with all people. God calls us to a union with Him; unless we desire such a relationship, at least to some degree, we will find the prospect boring and brush off this great offered relationship with a yawn.

It is God who initiates a relationship with us, and it is He who calls to us in our wilderness, as he did to Adam. “Where are you?” It is God who calls us to Himself. He is calling us out of the chaos of darkness into His light. We will be led to Him who is the Way, the Truth and the Life; only when we come to grips with our need for Him!

In His Great Love,

Pastor Gene
